

CRM CONSULTING AND DEVELOPMENT SERVICES

Part-time Salesforce Consultant at CRMD

Company Description

CRMD Solutions is a Boston-based Salesforce consulting company with over 20 years of combined Salesforce experience. Our expert consultant team helps businesses optimize their use of technology to drive faster sales and higher customer retention rates. We are a team of self-starters and independent thinkers with a passion for elegant solution design.

Job Description

The Salesforce Consultant is tasked with understanding the client's business requirements inside and out. They translate broad questions into strategic and tactical plans, the execution of which they oversee from end-to-end. They are responsible for setting their own work schedule and maintaining open lines of communication with the client throughout the work week. Depending on the nature of the project, they may end up working closely with the CRMD developer team, but they must also be comfortable jumping into Salesforce to do basic point-and-click configuration as well as testing and training.

This is a part-time position for 10-20 hours each week. Hours spent each week will vary depending on the stage of the project. However, as CRMD continues to grow, there may be opportunities to increase the number of accounts (and hours) the Consultant manages.

Required Technical and Professional Expertise

- 1-3 years of Salesforce implementation experience preferred
